

Mansfield Family Tree

In deeds dated 1826, establishing Spring Hill College, George Storer Mansfield describes himself as the only surviving son of William Mansfield of Derby, suggesting that both William and John had died by that time. It has not been possible to verify or date either death.