Family Report

Notes for JOHN BLACK:

According to the booklet Blacks of Breich Water, John wrote verses that appeared in the local papers, can't so far find any of them. Booklet also states that he only has one daughter and one surviving son.

John is in Addiewell in the 1891 census a joiner and living in the Miners Rows there - by 1901 he is an Outfitter and Jeweller in Govan - quite a change of trade and fortune??

John was known as "The Breich Water Poet" and I've been lucky enough to get copies of his three books of poems and sketches - Melodies n' Memories which includes some genealogy of the Blacks of Breich Water, Gloamin' Glints, and his final book Airtin' Hame. He writes poems of the district and his sketches tell stories of some of the local characters, and I've thoroughly enjoyed them.

She married JOHN SOMERVILLE (Source: (1) Isobel McWatt Records., (2) Family Records, Vaughan Niven.) 30 Jun 1896 in Mabel Bush, Southland, New Zealand (Source: Billy Rough Records.), son of WILLIAM SOMERVILLE and ISABELLA STEWART. He was born 07 Apr 1859 in Forth, Lanarkshire, Scotland (Source: Isobel McWatt Records.), and died 22 Dec 1956 in Invercargill New Zealand (Source: Family Records, Vaughan Niven.).

Notes for JOHN SOMERVILLE:

Some family sources give John's place of birth as Wilsontown, Lanark, SCOT.

Frank Price, John's son in law recalls John talking about Cowthdail Castle which was somewhere in the vicinity of Hamilton. It was the Somerville family seat. In the 1800s it became the Perry/Somerville seat.

From Isobel:

You need to tell your friend that Carnwath, Lanarkshire, Scotland folks will be after his blood if he says that Couthally Castle is anywhere except at Carnwath, Lanarkshire, Scotland. It is a national treasure and there would be a civil war if they tried to transport it to Hamilton.
