

TO THE EDITOR OF THE KERRY SENTINEL.

Hotel Cecil, Strand,

London, March 2nd, '99.

DEAR SIR—Having received information regarding an advertisement which appeared in the columns of the Kerry Sentinel early in the month of February asking for the whereabouts of Mr. Peter Glover, stone mason (millionaire), who was last heard of as being resident in Australia, I am only three months home from Australia, where I was thoroughly acquainted with the gentleman mentioned. I left Australia for England in the month of September last, when I parted with Mr. Glover. He was staying at the Fedral Palace Hotel, Melbourne, where he may possibly be at present. He is a very dark, well-built man of advanced years, and was born somewhere near Killarney, in the South of Ireland, which place he left at a very young age. He is one of the largest shareholders in the Victoria Gold Mining Company, as well as being owner of extensive freehold property. He advertised on several occasions in the Victoria and Melbourne papers for some friends of his in Ireland. I am leaving England in a few days, and will probably see the gentleman again when I get back to Melbourne. If so, I shall be pleased to hand him the advertisement which has been cut from the Kerry Sentinel, which a friend has kindly procured for me.

Yours truly, etc., etc.,

HENRY J. FLOOD.

P.S.—Should the friends of Mr. Glover wish to communicate with me, the address will be Mr. H. J. Flood, "Fedral Palace" Hotel, Melbourne, Australia, and I shall be glad to give any information which may lead to his whereabouts, but I think that there will be no difficulty in finding him.

Yours, etc., etc.,

H. J. FLOOD.
