

Agst the E. Wall and near the S. is a very neat white Marble mural Monument w these Arms at the top: p Pale 1st O. on a Bend B. 3 Cinquefoils of the 1st impaling C a Chevron Erm: int^r 3 Pears O. Crest, a Talbot seiant O. Under them is the followin Inscription: To the Memory | of Robert Harris, Citizen, | and Apothecary of London; eminent for his Skill, Humanity, | Integrity in his Profession; | blessed with a Heart t enjoy the | plentiful Fortune he acquired | generous in employing it to the Benefit of his Family, the Service of his Friends, | and the Relief of the Necessitous. | He wa elected Master of the Company | of Apothecaries in the year 1738 | By a right Conduc in that Station, | and in every other part of Life, | he gained the universal Character of an honest and good Man. | He died Sept: 24, 1739 | in the 70 year of his Age.