

of them In order to the better performance of this my will and the Trusts hereby declared shall and may be retained by them or allowed to them respectively to the utmost And I likewise hereby give power to my said Executors and Trustees the Survivors and Survivor of them to appoint such Agents under them for the management of the Trusts aforesaid with such allowance or salaries as from time to time shall be thought fitting And I will that none of my said Executors and Trustees be answerable for one another but each for his and her own doings and Receipts only nor shall they or any or either of them be answerable for the Mistakings of any persons to be employed under them in the management of the Trusts aforesaid either in keeping the moneys belonging to the said Trusts or otherwise in carrying on the said Trusts And for the better security of my said Trustees I desire that once a year (if they shall think fit) their accounts may be settled and allowed of by Order of the High Court of Chancery and such other things by the said Court directed as shall be found most satisfactory to my said Executors and Trustees And I devise to such of my said Executors and Trustees as will accept the Trusts aforementioned One hundred pounds a piece In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seals the day and year first above written. J. G. Roper. Signed sealed &c.
