

Daltrey: Yorkshire Family Tree

Norman Origins

Daltrey – Origin from Normandy (Hauterive) family 'de Alta Ripa'; first mention William de Alta Ripa in Pipe Rolls of Yorkshire 1166. Around 1235 Sir Geoffrey and Sir Ralph de Alta Ripa held lands in Carleton and Lothersdene, and next generation Sir Thomas married into Elsack-in-Craven. After 3 more generations there were no male heirs. The de Alta Ripa family also held lands for centuries in Full Sutton (5 miles from Yeapham). Dautry and Dawtre recorded in Yorkshire Poll Tax Returns in 1379.
