

To the Creditors of William Hearn Gentleman / I beg most respectfully to solicit your kind attention while I relate <sup>to you</sup> my most unfortunate case I am Gentlman, the Wife. W. Hearn and I can with confidence state that ~~that~~ when we took the Palmer street Hotel we had every intention of paying every body their just debts but in an unfortunate moment my husband listened to the evil advice of others and the consequence is I am left with six children in a utterly destitute condition without a farthing to get food for them and even their little clothes taken from them I am therefore gentlemen compelled to throw <sup>my</sup> self and children upon your kindness in order that you may Compassionate my forlorn Situation or to Enable me to get mine and my Poor childrens boxes of clothes, turn over anxiously awaiting your kind reply or to answer any questions

I am Gentlemen Yours Respectfully

Jam. Hearman

of Worcester

J. H. Crocker